

WWI MEMORIAL FOREST

Honouring the fallen

WW1 Memorial Forest groves are being planted around the Coromandel to commemorate the New Zealand soldiers who were killed in the Great War 100 years ago. Pay tribute to one of the fallen, by donating $25 to our WWI Memorial Forest. Your donation will pay for the planting and care of a tree in one of the Memorial Forest sites. You'll receive a memorial certificate with the soldier's name and the GPS co-ordinates of the tree.

Each forest site represents a battle NZ troops fought in or pays tribute to the men from that area who fell in the war.
